Synopsis: NCI Hosting Frederick National Laboratory for Cancer Research (FNLCR) Information Day

I. PURPOSE

The National Cancer Institute Office of Acquisitions is hosting the “FNLCR Information Day” designed to showcase the Frederick National Laboratory for Cancer Research (FNLCR) and the innovative work currently being performed there. The FNLCR Information Day is scheduled for WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 2015 at the Natcher Conference Center, Bethesda, MD from 8AM - 4PM EDT.

The FNLCR is a Federally Funded Research and Development Center (FFRDC) which serves as a unique biomedical resource for the development of new technologies and the translation of basic science discoveries into novel agents for the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of cancer, AIDS, and other diseases.

The FFRDC provides rapid response capabilities and one-of-a-kind resources for the biomedical research community within NCI, NIH and other Federal Agencies. Located in Frederick, Maryland, the NCI’s FFRDC is a Government-Owned Contractor-Operated (GOCO) research facility with a unique array of research support and advanced technologies, whose purpose is to bridge the gaps from discovery to healthcare delivery; to accelerate the development of new technologies and prototype treatments for patients; and to pave the way for new advances to enter clinical trials for testing, approval, and delivery to patients via the commercial sector.
